

BOOK HERE*BRIXTON
UNITARIAN CHURCH
CONCERT SERIES*Autumn 2023Tickets £12, £6 (concessions)
including light refreshmentsAbout Us

Launched in 2022, the Series welcomes new and emerging artists of styles including classical, jazz and folk to the beautifully intimate setting of the Effra Road Chapel in Brixton. Curated by brothers Jason Taing and Ricky Taing, we have featured students and graduates from many of the UK's leading musical institutions, most recently, The Larisa Trio, folk singer-songwriter Bryony Lloyd, and singers from Oxford Lieder and Genesis Sixteen for our Handel's Messiah. We would love to see you join us for what promises to be a some superb solo and chamber concerts from London's finest artists.

Kenny Keppel & Evi Wang:
Ireland, Farr, Bernstein & Weber24th September 2023 12:15pm

The London-based duo Kenny Keppel & Evi Wang present a curated collection of musical treasures for clarinet and piano.

The Heliconia Duo:
ft. Giuliani Grand Duo Concertante29th October 2023 12:15pm

With Catriona Bourne on flute and Julia Seibert on classical guitar, the duo presents an eclectic programme of classical and folk works.

The Brixton Soloists
with Hannah Dienes-Williams:
Mahler's Fourth Symphony26th November 2023 12:15pm

The Brixton Soloists, conducted by Jason Taing, make their concert debut performing Mahler's monumental Fourth Symphony.